Family fun abounds at Seattle Opera's Frost Fest

Celebrate winter with music from around the world
Saturday, Feb. 6, 2016 at Cornish Playhouse

SEATTLE – Come enjoy an exciting afternoon of music and fun at Seattle Opera's Frost Fest! Featuring performances by the company's Youth Opera Chorus, Teen Opera Players, and professional musicians, audiences will hear (and sometimes get to sing along with) classical and folk music from around the world, including songs from Liberia, Italy, Ireland, and the Dominican Republic.

"With opportunities to make and play instruments, try on costumes, and peek into backstage theater tricks, this is a fun, interactive afternoon for families with young kids," said Barbara Lynne Jamison, Seattle Opera's Director of Education and Community Engagement.

Attendees can arrive as early as 12:30 p.m. for free drop-in activities in the lobby. Make instruments, play instruments, dress up in costumes, and explore other technical elements of the theater. The one-hour performance will begin at 2 p.m.

This event is free for ages under 18 and $5 for adults. Tickets are required for both children and adults. To purchase, go to seattleopera.org/frostfest.

About Seattle Opera

Seattle Opera is a leading opera company, recognized both in the United States and around the world. The company is committed to advancing the cultural life in the Pacific Northwest with performances of the highest caliber, and through innovative education and community programs that take opera far beyond the McCaw Hall stage. Each year, more than 95,000 people attend Seattle Opera performances and the company's programs serve more than 400,000 people of all ages (including school performances, radio broadcasts and community engagement initiatives). Seattle Opera is especially known for its acclaimed works in the Richard Wagner canon, and has created an "international attraction" in its presentation of Wagner's epic Ring, according to The New York Times. Connect with Seattle Opera on Facebook, Twitter, SoundCloud and through the Seattle Opera channel on Classical King FM. 98.1.
